Dear Sirs:-

Enclosed you will find five Canadian Bills and three United States bills on which I would be pleased if you would quote me a price if they are of any value to you.

If not kindly return them to the address given below.

Yours truly,

R. T. Barnard

Dear Sir:

We are interested only in the Canadian bills that you sent us; the other three bills are absolutely worthless. These Canadian bills are of broken banks and have a commercial value of about twenty cents each. For these five we are prepared to offer you one dollar. I will hold the bills here until further word is received from you.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
